

EXHIBIT 20

Royal's and Wells Fargo's
Testimony Designations, Counterdesignations and Objections

Wells Fargo reserves the right to use any testimony designated by Royal in the Trial Order of September 4, 2007. Wells Fargo further reserves the right to make additional objections to Royal's Testimony Designations as the trial develops and trial issues are further defined. Wells Fargo also reserves the right to use any testimony to authenticate any documents should Royal dispute the authenticity of any document or to establish the admissibility of any document.

Royal likewise reserves the right to use any testimony designated by Wells Fargo in the Trial Order. Royal further reserves the right to make additional objections to Wells Fargo's Testimony Designations as the trial develops and trial issues are further defined. Royal also reserves the right to use any testimony to authenticate any documents should Wells Fargo dispute the authenticity of any document or to establish the admissibility of any document. By making any counter-designations to Wells Fargo's Testimony Designations, Royal does not waive, and expressly reserves, all objections to Wells Fargo's witnesses and the relevance and admissibility of Wells Fargo's deposition designations and other evidence. Royal also does not concede that Wells has the right to designate the testimony of any witness within the subpoena power of the Court who can be produced as a live witness at trial.

* Indicates Affirmative Wells Fargo Designation within the testimony of a witness designated by Royal.

19. Deposition Designations of Corey Koester

Pursuant to the Federal Rules CounterClaim Defendant Wells Fargo as Trustee does not concede that Plaintiff has the right to designate testimony of Mr. Koester because he is a current employee of Wells Fargo and can be produced as a live witness at trial. However, in the event that Mr. Koester does not testify then Plaintiff may subpoena him or submit the below designations and therefore Defendants have presented objections thereto and counter-designations/designations for their case in chief of Mr. Koester's testimony. All rights to object to any designations of Mr. Koester being submitted are reserved should he testify live.

23. Deposition Designations of Donald Lincoln

Pursuant to the Federal Rules CounterClaim Defendant Wells Fargo as Trustee does not concede that Plaintiff has the right to designate testimony of Mr. Lincoln because he is a current employee of Wells Fargo and can be produced as a live witness at trial. However, in the event that Mr. Lincoln does not testify then Plaintiff may subpoena him or submit the below designations and therefore Defendants have presented objections thereto and counter-designations/designations for their case in chief of Mr. Lincoln's testimony. All rights to object to any designations of Mr. Lincoln being submitted are reserved should he testify live.

NO WELLS COUNTER-DESIGNATIONS

38. Deposition Designations of Marianna Stershic

Pursuant to the Federal Rules CounterClaim Defendant Wells Fargo as Trustee does not concede that Plaintiff has the right to designate testimony of Mrs. Stershic because she is a current employee of Wells Fargo and can be produced as a live witness at trial. However, in the event that Mrs. Stershic does not testify then Plaintiff may subpoena her or submit the below designations and therefore Defendants have presented objections thereto and counter-designations/designations for their case in chief of Mrs. Stershic's testimony. All rights to object to any designations of Mrs. Stershic being submitted are reserved should she testify live.

41. Deposition Designations of Dianna Turner

Pursuant to the Federal Rules CounterClaim Defendant Wells Fargo as Trustee does not concede that Plaintiff has the right to designate testimony of Ms. Turner because she is a current employee of Wells Fargo and can be produced as a live witness at trial. However, in the event that Ms. Turner does not testify then Plaintiff may subpoena him or submit the below designations and therefore Defendant has presented objections thereto and counter-designations/designations for their case in chief of Ms. Turner's testimony. All rights to object to any designations of Ms. Turner being submitted are reserved should she testify live.
